

A MESSAGE FROM PREMIER JOHN HORGAN

As Premier of the Province of British Columbia, I would like to offer my best wishes to all of those celebrating this year's "Staffing for Canada Week 2018—Putting Canadians to Work."

This week honours the many Canadians who are employed through the staffing profession as well as the contributions of contract and temporary workers to the skilled labour force in all industry sectors and the positive effect that this has on the economy.

The Association of Canadian Search, Employment and Staffing Services (ACSESS), helps thousands of employers every year to fill positions within their businesses and companies, and helps even more people to find meaningful work.

I would like to thank ACSESS for the services that they have provided Canadians, and to acknowledge the hard work of contract and temporary workers across the country.

Please accept my best wishes.
